CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. W. H. Mitchell, died from apoplexy while preaching in a church at Newport News, Va.

Dr. Edwin Post, of DelPauw University, was stricken with paralysis while attending church at Greencastle, Ind.

At Lancaster, Pa., S. H. Hess, a Duckard preacher, dropped dead in his church while delivering a funeral sermon.

The Kentucky Synod of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church adjourned at Paducah, to meet next year at Greenville.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church will meet with Mrs. Lucy Henney at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Rev. G. W. Shepherd closed an interesting meeting at Republican Baptist church in Madison county which resulted in 17 additions.

The Christian church prayer meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Tate Wednesday evening, beginning at 7 o'clock.

Rev. J. W. Hagin writes that he will be home in time to lead the prayer meeting at Mr. W. P. Tate's tomorrow night and that he will hold his pulpit Sunday.

Rev. C. M. Huey's meeting at the Baptist church continues with good crowds each service and great interest is manifested. There have been 12 conversions so far.

Church people all over Louisville are engaged in conducting revival meetings, the results of which have been felt in numerous additions to a number of the churches. These revivals are not limited to any one denomination, but include almost all the evangelical congregations in the city.

"TAKES are coming in awfully slow," remarked Sheriff M. S. Haughman to us the other day. The penalty will go on in a short while and you had better not postpone longer the payment of the six per cent, may be added to your taxes.

THE suit of Judge Nichol, of Boyle county, to compel the county clerk from placing the name of Taylor Terhune, the republican candidate for county judge, on the ballots, was heard before Circuit Judge Hill at Danville Saturday afternoon and a temporary restraining order was granted. The case will be taken to the court of appeals. Terhune tried to get on the ballot by petition and it was claimed by Nichols that he did not secure the requisite number of signers.

THE most artistic musical evening Stanford has ever enjoyed will be the recital at Walton's Opera House Wednesday evening, Nov. 3rd, in which the College of Music of Cincinnati will present Mr. Frederick J. Hoffmann, concert pianist and teacher of piano, and Mr. Carl M. Gantvoort, basso cantante and teacher of voice. Music lovers in our neighboring towns are securing seats to enjoy the music that will be given by these artists. Reserved seats 50 cents. On sale at McRoberts' drug store.

THE attention that is being paid to the study of music in our town demands that we should employ a music critic. When we get rich we intend to engage one who knows what music is. We attend the musical performances in a blind, somewhat unappreciative way, enjoy them, but to write them up in suitable terms that a musician would use is beyond our ken. Never did we feel the need more keenly than in attempting to say something of the Recital given Friday evening last by Misses Virginia Bourne and Allie Huftman. The selections were bright, telling, not too long, well rendered and in every way pleasing. Every one remembers that these two young ladies took the prize for the best pianists at the State Tournament last summer. That of itself speaks louder than anything we can say in their praise. Mesdames A. G. Huffman, W. C. Shanks and Miss Nell Warren lent their aid to the evening's entertainment by each singing a pretty solo. Berta Jean Penny, the little whistler, out-whistled the whistlers. Jess Lee Walton was called on at the last moment to fill out one of the numbers and sang in a childlike, unaffected manner. Miss Mallon may well be satisfied with this, the first of a series of recitals to be given by her class.

CARSON.—Miss Nevill Carson, a splendid, christian lady of Brodhead, died of a complication of troubles and was buried Saturday. She was one of those kind-hearted, gentle women who was loved most by those who knew her best. Her friends here and elsewhere are saddened by her taking away. A large crowd attended the burial, attesting to some extent the love her people had for her.

DEAR MR. CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY OFFICE.—If you will set aside your race for just one week and spend the time working toward carrying Lincoln county democratic next Tuesday the voters will be more willing to bear your tale of woe and will love you far better. But if you persist in stinging your praises and telling of your fitness for the office you aspire and continue to neglect the important election almost at hand, the democrats will turn a deaf ear to you and let the house dog entertain you instead of giving you the best they've got as they have been doing so long. A hint to the wise is sufficient. A VOTER.
